2017 AWHONN Advanced Fetal Heart Monitoring Workshop Dates
February 16; May 11; September 7; November 16

Location: Nursing Clinical Education Center, 4 West, General Hospital, UI Hospitals & Clinics, Iowa City, IA

Audience: This course is designed for clinicians who previously completed the AWHONN Intermediate Fetal Monitoring Course, a comparable fetal monitoring educational program and/or who hold certification or added credentials in fetal heart monitoring.

Objectives:
1. Describe physiologic principles of maternal and fetal oxygen transfer and acid-base balance.
2. Identify physiologic principles underlying fetal heart monitoring.
3. Describe concepts in antenatal testing including analysis and interpretation of biophysical profiles and complex antenatal fetal heart monitoring tracings.
4. Relate physiologic principles to the goals and interventions of antenatal testing.
5. Evaluate interventions for patients undergoing antenatal testing.
6. Analyze fetal cardiac arrhythmia patterns and describe outcomes associated with these patterns.
7. Analyze complex fetal heart monitoring patterns utilizing current NICHD/ACOG FHM terminology and categories.
8. Apply perinatal risk management principles, communication techniques and documentation strategies related to complex and challenging patient care scenarios.
